Having a strategic and disciplined path that equips teams to pivot within marketplace shifts:

An organization transformed how they work to create revenue

- An organization enjoyed a 17.5 % increase in top line revenue ($6 million)
- Rebuilt how we used data, customer experience in sales marketing and revenue management.

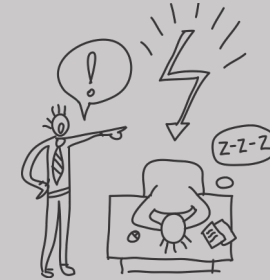

Bringing a team together to focus on outcomes

- A luxury hotel experienced 25% increase in revenue by collaborating, integrating and focus the team on a common goal.

Unhappy associates

- Through designing, developing, and implementing a culture program focused on employee engagement a luxury hotel had put into action a plan to create a great place to work

In a distressed hotel

- Distressed Hotel closed on a $1.3 million account with sales and marketing methodology and approach.

"Five months ago, we had trouble knowing what was happening within the marketplace. We were just doing promotions to increase business. Now we are leading the market and having to close out discounts and advance purchase due to demand that we didn't have before."

-Jason Keltz, Revenue Management, White Lodging
